

TALK: EZEKIEL

Central Message: God can bring life back to _____ places.

Ezekiel 37:1-3—"The hand of the Lord was on me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the Lord and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. He asked me, 'Son of man, can these bones live?' I said, 'Sovereign Lord, you alone know.'"

1. _____ describing dead things and _____ declaring God's promises.

Reflection:

- What story have you been repeatedly telling yourself lately?
- Is it possible your internal dialogue is reinforcing the very thing God wants to heal?
- What would change if you started speaking God's promises more than your problems?

Ezekiel 37:4-6—"Then He said to me, 'Prophesy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord! This is what the Sovereign Lord says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the Lord.'"

Faith is not denying the _____. Faith is declaring that the valley does not get the _____ word.

2. God often starts the miracle in _____.

Ezekiel 37:7—"So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone."

Reflection:

- Where in your life are you frustrated with the pace of healing?
- Have you mistaken 'unfinished' for 'abandoned'?
- What if the rattling is actually progress?

3. You don't just need _____ . You need _____ .

Ezekiel 37:8—“I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them—and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.”

Reflection:

- What looks alive on the outside but feels empty on the inside?
- Where are you exhausted from trying to sustain yourself without God's breath?
- When's the last time you felt spiritually awake?

Ezekiel 37:9-10—"Then He said to me, 'Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, Son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Come, breath, from the four winds and breathe into these slain, that they may live.' So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army."
